The second information letter

Dear Colleagues,

we invite you to participate in the 23rd A.Ya. Petrenyuk International Scientific Practical Seminar

"COMBINATORIAL CONFIGURATIONS AND THEIR APPLICATIONS"

The twenty-third seminar will be held May 13-15, 2021 at the Zaporizhzhia Polytechnic National University with the participation of the Flight Academy of the National Aviation University.

The offered of the seminar is to unite domestic and foreign scientific forces that study and apply combinatorial configurations; exchange of information and scientific achievements in this direction.

The main issues proposed for discussion at the seminar 2021 are related to machine learning, data mining as one of the modern scientific directions in the development of studies of combinatorial configurations and their applications in various fields.

Seminar topics:

1. Combinatorial arrangements, graphs and problems of optimization on them, automates, finite algebra, mathematical logics and set theory, game theory and decision theory, coding and pattern recognition, theory application in various fields.

2. Implementation of mathematical models for discrete and continuous sets (management information systems, automated system-consistent design, decision support systems, information security).

3. Combinatorial configurations synthesis and analysis software development.

The persons invited to participate in the seminar are scientists, university professors, graduate students, and specialists in the field of combinatorial configurations. Those who wish to participate in the seminar are requested to send registration card and the articles, drawn up in accordance with the requirements to scientific publications by May 1, 2021.

The materials of the seminar will be posted on the sites of
